Humanic Design Partners with Leading Learning and Talent Management Solution Provider – Cornerstone OnDemand

MAHWAH, NJ – May 20, 2008 – Humanic Design, a leading provider of Human Resource Management Systems (HRMS), today announced that it has signed an agreement to be a reselling partner for Cornerstone OnDemand, a recognized worldwide leader in learning, performance and talent management solutions.

Humanic plans to integrate Cornerstone's best-of-breed functionality with Humanic's time-tested HRMS and payroll solutions. The Humanic / Cornerstone combination will provide customers with excellent software enabling tools to attract, manage, develop, align, motivate and retain their workforce.

"Talent management, leadership development and key employee retention are must-haves for today's competitive enterprise. With Cornerstone, we have chosen to partner with a true industry leader," said Jeff Noolas, President of Humanic Design. "We are optimistic about the partnership with Cornerstone, given that both talent management and software-as-a-service solutions are in high demand. This allows Humanic to offer a highly configurable and robust solution to customers, and expand our market reach."

Humanic will immediately be selling, implementing and supporting the Cornerstone software with top-notch HR professional service staff. "Our partnership with Cornerstone will provide our customers with state-of-the-art solutions designed to align performance and learning with overall enterprise goals. Goal alignment, coupled with continuous learning drives lean processes, which results in increased profitability," said Steve Brander, Humanic's Vice President of Sales and Business Development.

"The Cornerstone and Humanic partnership will provide customers with the right tools to facilitate HR best practices, giving them a strategic advantage," said Sean Jacobsohn, VP Alliances of Cornerstone OnDemand. "We believe that pairing a comprehensive and proven HRMS solution with a best-of-breed talent management suite will be a popular solution for organizations and their HR professionals."
